4. Card issuing

4.1. To receive the Card, the Client must submit an Application to Walleto via the System or a Distributor.

4.2. Walleto, after accepting the Client's Application, shall issue a Card. If the Client requests, Walleto may issue multiple Cards. Walleto shall solely at its own discretion determine the total number of issued Cards.

4.3. At the Client's request, the Card may be issued not only to the Client, but also to another person indicated by the Client with an approval of the Client, i.e. a Cardholder. If the Client requests to issue a Card to another person, the Client must inform the Cardholder of the conditions set in the Agreement.

4.4. The Cardholder, after issuing the Card shall be provided with unique Means of Authentication. Such Means of Authentication are considered as the Cardholder's signature in order to perform Payment Transactions. The use of the Means of Authentication shall mean the consent and authorization to perform Payment Transactions.

4.5. The Cardholder shall not disclose Means of Authentication to third-parties.

4.6. Walleto has the right to send the Card and the Means of Authentication by post or through Walleto's authorized person.

5. Card payments

5.1. Only the Cardholder is entitled to perform Payment Transaction with the Card.

5.2. Payment Transaction may be performed by the Cardholder:

5.2.1. immediately after a virtual Card is issued;

5.2.2. only after a physical Card in accordance with the received instructions has been activated.

5.3. The Cardholder may perform Payment Transaction only within the amount located on the Account and in accordance with the Card usage limits (daily, weekly, monthly maximum amount for Payment Transactions) indicated in the Agreement. Walleto reserves the right to determine Card usage limits.

5.4. Walleto assumes that all Payment Transactions are consented to, authorised and initiated by the Cardholder, unless proven otherwise.

5.5. The use of the Card or Means of Authentication to initiate a Payment Transaction shall be considered as an authorisation and consent to carry out the Payment Transaction. Unless established differently for the protection of consumer rights, if the Cardholder provides consent to perform a Payment Transaction, the Cardholder is not entitled for a refund unless the Payee agrees to refund the transferred amount to the Cardholder.

5.6. Payment transactions initiated using the Card will be executed in the Account according to the General Terms and Conditions, its integral parts and the applicable law.

5.7. Payment Transaction performed by the Cardholder using the Card may be declined if:

6. Requirements for ensuring a secure Card usage

6.1. The Cardholder ensures:

6.1.1. to active the physical Card before usage. This process has to be proceeded after receiving the physical Card. The Cardholder shall be liable for any damages to the Card due to premature activation or not following the Card activation instructions.

6.1.2. to protect the physical Card from any physical damage including copying, modification etc.;

6.1.3. not to provide the Card to third-parties unless the third-party is accepting the payment;

6.1.4. not to use the Card for illegal activities, including purchases of goods/services which are prohibited by applicable law;

6.1.5. to immediately report any malfunctions which may influence the performance of Payment Transactions;

6.1.6. to follow any other obligations stated in the Agreement.

6.2. The Cardholder has the obligation to keep the Card and the Means of Authentication secure. The Cardholder shall restrain from recording the Means of Authentication on any information carriers which may be used by third-parties in order to gain access to the Card or the Means of Authentications.

6.3. Walletto upon receiving information that the Card is used by third-parties and not by the Cardholder shall take necessary measures to block the Card.

7. Validity and Card blockage

7.1. The Card is valid inclusively until the last day of the calendar month stated on the Card. As soon as the next calendar month begins after the calendar month stated on the Card, the Card shall be deemed invalid.

7.2. If the Account was closed, the Card is considered expired (invalid) and, therefore, no longer valid from the moment the Account was closed.

7.3. In order to verify circumstances of Card use, Walletto reserves the right to block the usage of the Card if:

7.3.1. Means of Authentication have been disclosed to persons who have no right to use the Card;

7.3.2. the Account is closed, suspended or restricted;

7.3.3. Cardholder's activities performing Payment Transactions may be associated with fraud or any other illegal activities;

7.3.4. obligations are not duly performed by the Cardholder;

7.3.5. other grounds which are deemed important for blocking the Card.

7.4. If reasons for Card blocking remain, Walletto has the right to block the Card.

7.5. Cardholder has the right to request the Card to be blocked at any time.

7.6. In events when the Cardholder enters the PIN incorrectly three times in succession, the physical Card will be blocked. In such case the Cardholder shall inform Walleto or the Distributor immediately.

7.7. Walleto shall not be liable for any type of damages caused to the Cardholder or other third-parties for Card blockage, unless legal acts determine otherwise.

8. Walleto's rights in conjunction with prevention of money laundering and terrorism financing

8.1. Walleto in accordance with Directive 2015/849 and implementing legislation has the following rights:

8.1.1. to exchange information and documents of the Cardholder to ensure the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing;

8.1.2. to regularly verify the information on identification of the Cardholder and at any moment request the Cardholder to submit additional documents;

8.1.3. to apply temporary or permanent restriction on Cardholder's performing Payment Transactions;

8.1.4. to request documents and information of any kind regarding the Cardholders activities;

8.1.5. to request documents and information of any kind regarding persons involved in the transaction;

8.1.6. to request any other type of documents and information which are required by Walleto to ensure the duty in prevention of money laundering and terrorism financing;

8.1.7. to refuse the execution of Payment Transactions if the Cardholder does not comply with the requirements preventing money laundering and terrorist financing.

9. Liability

9.1. The Cardholder is liable for the breach of obligations stated in the General Terms and Conditions, its integral parts or any other legal acts.

9.2. Walleto shall not be held liable for the involvement of third-parties in processing the Payment Transactions. Walleto does not take responsibility of third-parties for the refusal to accept the Card in order to pay for goods or services.

10. Commission Fees

10.1. The Cardholder shall pay Commission Fees for the issuance of the Card including postal expenses described at <https://walleto.eu/pricing> or otherwise agreed between the Parties.

10.2. All Commission Fees for the Payment Transactions shall be debited by Walleto from the Account.

10.3. Currency conversion fees are specified in the Cardholder's Account and currency exchange is based on the exchange rate of International Card Organizations that are publicly available and are valid at the time of conversion.

10.4. Walleto's decision to block the Card shall not be considered as termination of the General Terms and Conditions or other integral parts. Therefore, the act of blocking of the Payment Card, i.e. refusal to carry out Payment Transactions, shall not free the Cardholder from Commission Fee calculation of provided services or lift the obligation to pay calculated Commission Fees.

11. Final provisions

11.1. All relationships between the Client, the Cardholder and Walleto are governed by the laws of the Republic of Lithuania.

11.2. Walleto has the right to disclose information about the Payment Transactions performed by the Cardholder to third-parties, who under legal acts have the right to receive such information.

11.3. Agreement may be amended or terminated in accordance with the procedure described in the Agreement.

11.4. This Agreement shall be published on Walleto's and Distributor's website.
